The event will include:

- > A panel discussion with key decision makers within the game, including former England player Earl Barrett, Leicestershire County FA and other special guests
- > Presentations addressing local community needs through sport and the Kick It Out mentoring in football project, rolling out in Leicester
- > Awards ceremony for local projects
- > Help with funding, volunteering and running football activities

Are you an amateur club or community group looking to develop your club and the people who work within it? Looking for funding to develop your club? Are you looking to develop coaches, referees and young players?

And do you want to play a bigger role in the football industry in Leicester?

Kick It Out, Leicester City and Leicestershire County FA would like to invite you to an evening forum for grassroots clubs and community groups.

To book your FREE place at this event please contact Kevin Coleman at Kick It Out on email kevin@kickitout.org or call 0207-684-4884
